

Surf Coast Arts Trail Goes Digital!

Now in its 8th year, the 2019 Surf Coast Arts Trail showcases more than 160 artists in 54 venues across the Shire. That's why we've decided to go digital, joining forces with Alpaca Maps to create a dedicated online map of the trail, from Winchelsea to Moggs Creek, Wurdibolluc to Jan Juc.

Hover your phone's camera over the QR code (above) then tap on the instructions that appear on your screen. Familiarise yourself with the individual artists and follow the links to see more of their work.

Go straight to the QR code by following this link: www.surfcoast.vic.gov.au/Experience/Arts-culture-andheritage/Surf-Coast-Arts-Trail or go to https://bit.ly/2RPXhd9 to open the map.

Winchelsea / Hinterland

1 SHREK GALLERY

Laurel McLennan 10-5 on Saturday and 10-4 Sunday

Despite having to wait until retirement to pursue her love of painting, Laurel has embraced the challenges inherent in the medium of vatercolour, producing images of inland scenery softened by mist and fog.

Dee Matheson

@matheson.dee

Dee's paintings often reflect the local landscape, flora and fauna and her passion for travel. Her nain love is watercolour but in recent years she has expanded into oils, enjoying what this medium has to offer.

@ron.talbot.art

Ron paints using both oils and acrylics. His work is impressionistic, bordering on abstract with energy imparted through the brush or pallet knife. He aspires to create work that is full of colour, light and energy.

3 SUNSTRUCK STUDIO

Michael Ryan

Michael's work depicts things of old and the coastal environs using local ochres to make printing ink, watercolour, acrylic and oil paint.
