

SCS-032 Complaint Handling Policy

TRIM Reference:	D23/150504	Due for Review:	November 2027
Responsible Officer:	Coordinator Customer Experience

Purpose

This policy outlines Surf Coast Shire Council's (Council) commitment to an open and transparent complaint handling system which ensures all complaints are handled fairly and objectively.

Policy

The policy commits Surf Coast Shire Council to deal effectively with complaints and guides how complaints handling procedures are implemented.

Dealing with complaints is a core part of Council business. We value complaints and encourage people to contact us when they have a problem with our services, actions, decisions, and policies.

We are committed to:

- enabling members of the public to make complaints about the Council
- responding to complaints by taking action to resolve complaints as quickly as possible
- learning from complaints to improve our services.

We treat every complaint we receive on its individual merits, through clear and consistent processes.

People making complaints will be:

- provided with information about our complaint handling process
- provided with multiple and accessible ways to make complaints
- listened to, treated with respect by staff and actively involved in the complaint process where possible and appropriate, and
- provided with reasons for our decision/s and any options for redress or review.

The policy is maintained in accordance with section 107 of the Local Government Act 2020 and includes best practice recommendations made to local government by the Victorian Ombudsman.

Scope

This policy applies to complaints from members of the public about Council services, staff, volunteers, Council contractors and decisions made at Council meetings. This policy does not apply to complaints about individual Councillors.

This policy is not applicable to:

- Complaints about third parties (unless it involves contractors carrying out work on Council's behalf), except when Council has a legal responsibility to report complaints, for example Child Safe Standards.
- A request for service or reporting infrastructure damage in the first instance.
- Comments or submissions received during formal consultation, which has a specific process for receiving community feedback and comments.
- Lodging an appeal in accordance with other policies, procedures and legislation, or otherwise subject to statutory review, examples include:
 - complaints/objections relating to a planning application decision
 - complaints/appeals relating to parking infringements
- A petition to Council about a certain matter.
- Complaints that have already been reviewed by an external agency.
- Complaints considered frivolous, vexatious or not made in good faith.
- Complaints that relate to a decision awaiting determination by Council.
- Complaints relating to the appointment or dismissal of any employee or an industrial or disciplinary issue.

The above issues are still valid and are managed separately from the complaint handling process.

For the purposes of this policy, an issue that is resolved at the first point of contact is not recorded as a complaint.

What is a 'complaint'?

A complaint includes a communication (verbal or written) to the Council which expresses dissatisfaction about:

- the quality of an action, decision or service provided by the Council staff (including volunteers) or a Council contractor
- a delay by Council staff or a Council contractor in taking an action, making a decision or delivering a service
- a policy or decision made by the Council, Council staff or a Council contractor.

How to make a complaint

Any person can make a complaint. Council will deal with all complaints it receives. Complaints can be made by:

- Telephone: 03 5261 0600
- Online: www.surfcoast.vic.gov.au/complaint
- Email: info@surfcoast.vic.gov.au
- Post: PO Box 350, Torquay, 3228
- In person: Customer Service Desk 1 Merrijig Drive, Torquay or a council satellite office

The complaint form on our website is designed to make it easy for customers to lodge complaints by collecting the necessary information required to resolve matters. We understand that not everyone has access to or is able to use digital technology. For this reason, customers can contact us by telephone to make a complaint.

It is helpful if customers provide the following information when making a complaint:

- name and contact details (phone and email preferred). You can complain anonymously, but this may limit how Council can investigate the matter
- identify the action, decision, service or policy you are complaining about, and why you are dissatisfied
- give us relevant details, such as dates, times, location or reference numbers, name of any witnesses or employees that have assisted you previously and documents that support your complaint
- the outcome you are seeking from making your complaint
- whether you have any particular communication needs.

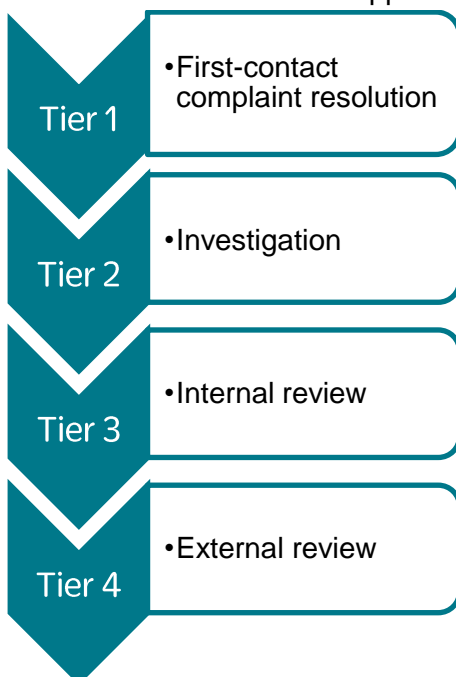

We are committed to ensuring our complaints process is accessible to everyone. Tell us if you have specific communication needs or barriers, and we can assist you by:

- using an assistance service, such an interpreter (refer to website for language services) or Teletypewriter (call National Relay Service 133 677) for free
- talking with you if you have trouble reading or writing
- communicating with another person acting on your behalf if you cannot make the complaint yourself.

Staff may escalate a matter of customer dissatisfaction with a service, outcome or decision of council to a complaint. The complaint will in turn provide the customer with a way forward to review the matter.

Our Complaints Process

Council uses a four-tiered approach to investigating and resolving complaints.

Initial assessment and first actions (Tier one)

When you complain to us, we will record and acknowledge your complaint within five business days.

We will initially assess your complaint to decide how we will handle it. After our initial assessment, we may:

- take direct action to resolve your complaint
- refer your complaint to the relevant team or manager for investigation
- decline to deal with your complaint if you have a right to a statutory review of your complaint (such as a right of appeal to VCAT)
- decline to investigate complaints that are considered frivolous, vexatious, concern a trivial matter or are not made in good faith.

Where possible, we will attempt to resolve your complaint at the time you first contact us. If we decide not to take action on your complaint, we will explain why, and, where possible, inform you about other options.

Early resolution of a complaint may involve providing advice or explaining why we are not going to take action on your complaint.

Timelines of resolution will vary depending on what service(s) or resolution is required for rectification.

It may not be possible to resolve your complaint when you first contact us if your complaint requires deeper consideration, investigation by a particular team or employee or must follow a statutory process.

Investigation (Tier two)

If we have not been able to resolve the complaint when you first contact us, or your complaint is about the conduct of an employee, we will refer your complaint to a team, a manager or a specialist complaint handler to investigate and resolve. The investigative actions taken will depend on the nature of the complaint.

A complaint investigation may include speaking with other council employees, contractors, external agencies, inspecting case notes and documents, conducting site inspections, assessment of relevant legislation, policies and procedures and allocating investigative tasks to employees.

We aim to complete investigations of Tier two complaints within 20 working days, and will tell you if the investigation will take longer. We will update you every 20 working days about progress until the investigation is completed. We will inform you of the outcome of your complaint and explain our reasons.

Internal Review (Tier three)

If you remain dissatisfied with our decision or how we responded to your complaint, you can request an internal review.

The officer conducting the internal review of your complaint will be independent of the initial investigation.

The internal review is the final part of the internal complaint process. The same matter will not be re-considered once the review is completed.

We aim to complete investigations of Tier three complaints within 20 working days and will tell you if the investigation will take longer.

It is not compulsory to complete an internal review before seeking an external review. It is however mandatory the council has investigated your complaint in the first instance.

External review (Tier four)

If you remain dissatisfied with Council's response, we will inform you of which external agency you can approach to have the matter reviewed.

Resolution timelines will depend on responsible organisation.

It is not compulsory to complete an internal review before seeking an external review. It is however mandatory the council has investigated your complaint in the first instance.

How to request an external review

There are external bodies that can deal with different types of complaints about us.

It is likely that the organisation you contact will direct you back to us for an initial complaint investigation before they will consider a complaint.

You can request an external review from the following organisations:

Complaint	Organisation to contact for external review
Actions or decisions of a Council, Council employees and contractors. This includes failure to consider human rights or failure to act compatibly with a human right under the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006	Victorian Ombudsman www.ombudsman.vic.gov.au

Customers whose conduct is unreasonable

We require our staff to be respectful and responsive in all of their communications with members of the public. We expect the same of you when you communicate with our staff.

We may change the way we communicate with you if your behaviour or conduct raises health, safety, resource or equity issues for Council staff involved in the complaints process.

Unreasonable complainant conduct (UCC) is any behaviour by a current or former complainant which, because of its nature or frequency raises substantial health, safety, resource or equity issues for the organisation, staff, other service users and complainants or the complainant himself/herself.

UCC can be divided into five categories of conduct:

- Unreasonable persistence
- Unreasonable demands
- Unreasonable lack of cooperation
- Unreasonable arguments
- Unreasonable behaviour

Unreasonable persistence

Is continued, incessant and unrelenting conduct by a complainant that has a disproportionate and unreasonable impact on our organisation, staff, services, time and/or resources.

Unreasonable demands

Are any demands (express or implied) that are made by a complainant that have a disproportionate and unreasonable impact on the organisation, staff, services, time and/or resources.

Unreasonable lack of cooperation

Is an unwillingness and/or inability by a complainant to cooperate with the organisation, staff, or complaints system and processes that result in a disproportionate and unreasonable use of services, time and/or resources.

Unreasonable arguments

Include any arguments that are not based on reason or logic, that are incomprehensible, false or inflammatory, trivial or delirious and that disproportionately and unreasonably impact upon the organisation, staff, services, time, and/or resources.

Unreasonable behaviour

Is conduct that is unreasonable in all circumstances – regardless of how stressed, angry or frustrated that a complainant is – because it unreasonably compromises the health, safety and security of staff, other service users or the complainant them self.

Surf Coast Shire Council has a zero tolerance policy towards any harm, abuse or threats directed towards Councillors, staff, contractors or volunteers. Any conduct of this kind will be dealt with under this policy (via management policies and procedures) and in accordance with Council's duty of care and occupational health and safety responsibilities.

Actions for unreasonable complainant conduct

- UCC will be identified and the complainant will be notified accordingly

- As a result of the UCC there may be a warning, ban, limit or restriction on the way a complainant can communicate with, or receive services from the council.
